

GLOBAL HUMANITARIAN MISSION

PROJECT PROPOSAL

Jesus Embrace Technical Centre Building a Future of Success!

Aba, Abia State,
NIGERIA

Overview

Abia State in the southeast zone of Nigeria, is fairly new, having been established in 1991. It is home to over 4 million people, 95% of whom are from the Ngwa indigenous clan of Igbo.

The city of Aba is known as a major commercial and industrial hub in Nigeria, renowned for its vibrant small-scale and informal manufacturing industries, including textiles, garments, shoes, leatherworks, and metal fabrication. However, most of the residents are engaged in agriculture, cultivating staple crops such as yams, rice, cassava. Oil palm is the main cash crop.

Decayed structures and a deteriorated socioeconomic infrastructure are telltale signs of a rising poverty rate, unemployment, urban deterioration, and crime in Aba.

Thanks to the overwhelming support of donors partnering with Global Humanitarian Mission, the work of Marian Missionaries Ad Regnum Dei is being solidified in the massive new 3-story seminary and chapel constructed in the heart of Aba.

Here at the Donum Josephinum Seminary, the guidelines of priestly formation mandated by the Catholic Bishops Conference of Nigeria, will be diligently observed. Here, 50 Seminarians, Formators and Novices, who have a deeply rooted love for Jesus, will be groomed as servant leaders to expand the mission of the Church by serving the poor.

It is also the goal of the Missionaries to help empower local young teens, through the vocational school on campus.

Project Snapshot

Global Humanitarian Mission as a Christian organization, is committed to bringing the Love of Christ and a Mission of Mercy as we serve the poor.

Jesus Embrace Technical Centre project will construct a vocational institute on the campus of Donum Josephinum Seminary, where young men and women will have the opportunity to learn a trade.

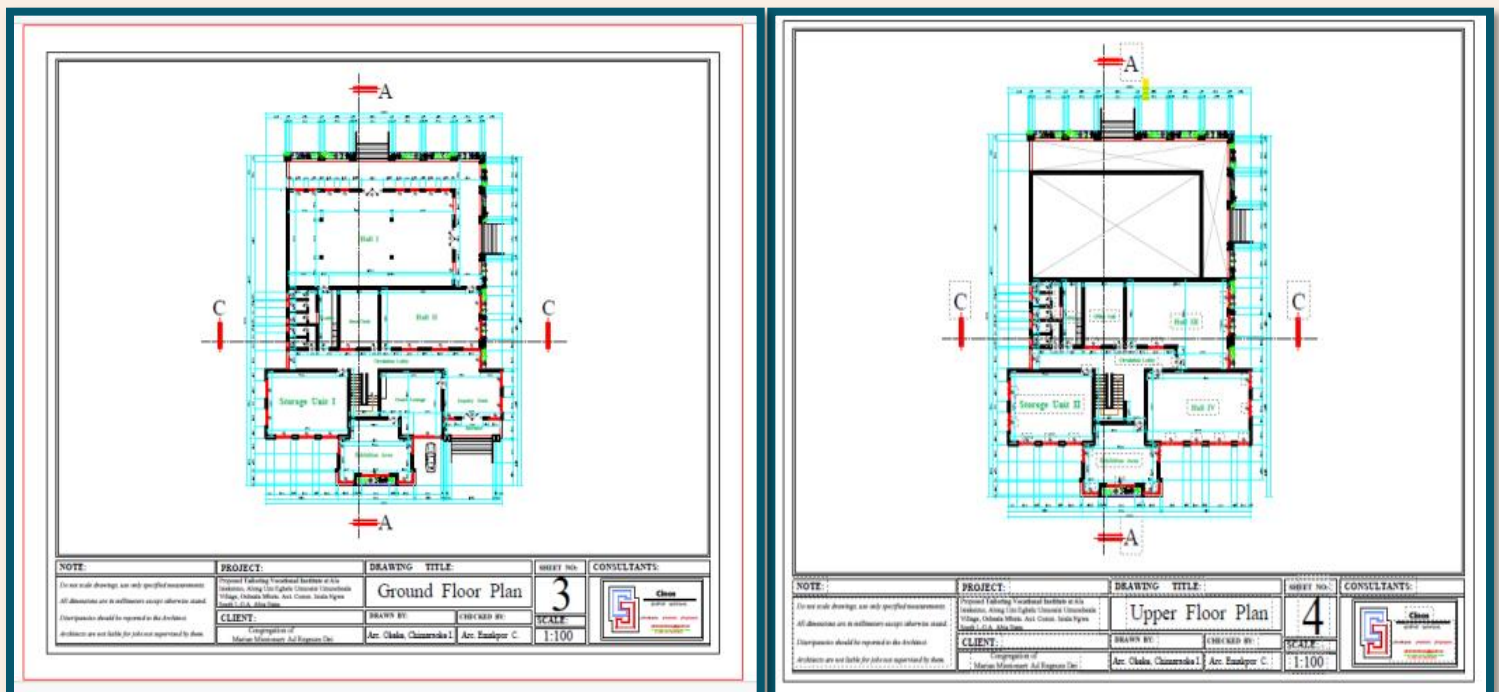

In addition to learning invaluable life skills, and the love of God and His Word, a vocational training program will equip young people who are undereducated and have no resources, for an independent and successful future.

They will be empowered as certified technicians in the following disciplines:

- Plumbers
- Electricians
- Tailors
- Seamstresses
- Metal fabricators

TOTAL COST: $68,400.00

From Global Humanitarian Mission

Thanks to the incredible generosity of donors who are so committed to carrying out the work of St. Joseph in the name of Jesus, they freely share their life's work for this cause.

Today in Aba, Nigeria, the results of their hard-earned labor is bearing fruit, as Donum Josephinum materializes. And so too is the vision of Archbishop Fortunatus Nwachukwu, 'The Gift of St. Joseph'.

Even as the Seminary will represent a spiritual fulfillment for young servant leaders, Marian Missionaries desperately seeks your help in creating a secure physical future for impoverished young men and women in the region. Providing them with this vocational institute will do just that. It cannot happen without you.

Your gift is more than just a token.
It is an investment that you are paying forward for generations to come!

"See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way..." Isaiah 43:19
